

CHIC MUMS

MAKEOVERS * ADVICE * SPAS * SHOPPING

From left Hermione wears: corded French lace and silk-organza dress with mohair grosgrain ribbon belt with satin trim and Swarovski crystal detail, from £2,525; corded French lace bolero, from £575; tulle veil, £220. Stewart Parvin. Faux-pearl and crystal drop earrings, £16. Jon Richard. Camomile, poppy and blush anemone bouquet, £50. Rebel Rebel. Imogen wears: lace-over-taffeta bodice with stretch taffeta skirt and matching jacket, £655. Inspirato. Burnt ostrich feather and rose headpiece, £320. Gina Foster. Fresh-water pearl necklace, £155. Coleman Douglas. Tights, £4.89. Aristoc at mytights.com. Peep-toes, £450. Jimmy Choo

Country classic

Hermione, 25, a physiotherapist and Imogen Turner, 53, a housewife

Dilemma 'We're planning a traditional marquee wedding in our garden in June,' says Imogen, 'so Hermione wants something classically bridal. My style is smart and conservative, but my outfit has to be practical as I'll be helping out on the day.'

Style secrets 'A fitted jacket and skirt is a fail-safe mother-of-the-bride outfit,' says Brides fashion guru Astrid Joss. 'Imogen's ruffled collar adds drama to a classic outfit; she can take the jacket off when she's taking charge at the reception. Hermione's dress is a timeless style and the bolero is appropriate for her church wedding.'

Verdict 'I wouldn't normally pick a strapless dress as I feel too exposed,' says Hermione, 'but the lace cover-up is the perfect solution. Mum looks brilliant. It's a bolder version of her usual style, which is what I've been trying to persuade her to go for!' →

Look at us NOW!

It's our mums and daughters makeover special, so whatever your wedding style there's a look you'll both love