

CHIC ECONOMY

FOUR BRIDES SHARE THEIR SEASONAL WEDDING LOOKS FOR EVERY BUDGET

CROWNING GLORY
This headpiece is divine. It would look great whether you wore your hair up or down. Feather and net headpiece, £97, Gina Foster

Revlon Nail Enamel in Pink, £6.29

Paper butterflies, 85p each, wedding-favours.com

GOLD CRUSH This feminine clutch looks fabulous in gold. Leather bow clutch, £20, Dents

AUDREY HEPBURN

Spring

THE FASHION GURU

Carla Gordon

STYLE ICON 'Audrey Hepburn in My Fair Lady inspired me to come out of my tomboy stage. The flowers and pastel shades are really romantic; I used the same palette for my spring wedding. Her ballgown was a little too glitzy for me, so I decided to use the Empire-line style and cap sleeves, but with soft chiffon layers and flower detail.'

Citrine and pearl earrings, £38, By Elise

THE BRIDAL GOWN
I adore this dress; the layers of fabric are perfect. Chiffon dress, £900, Justin Alexander. Silk corsage, £8, accessorize

Carla and Graham Gordon wed on 24 May 2008

Darphin Camomile Aromatic Care, £37

Satin and lace bra, £31; knickers, £19, Pleasure State

BOUQUET STYLE These flowers were my childhood favourites; they have a country feel. Ranunculus, rose, paperwhite and lilac bouquet, from £80, Wild at Heart

Satin peep-toes, £30, Red Herring at Debenhams

THE INVESTMENT PIECE

I love this headpiece. It has a vintage feel which is in keeping with the dress. Crystal hair slide, £460, Jasper Conran